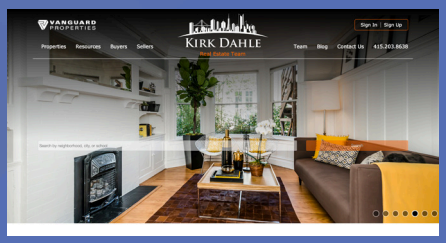
SMACK HAPPY

Your Partner In Beautiful, High-End Design

ABOUT US

Smack Happy Design is made up of a talented, unique group of individuals who have over 19 years of experience designing, coding, and marketing websites. Staying atop of the ever-changing digital world, respecting our clients' business goals, and delivering high-end design and marketing solutions are just a few of the ways we continue to forge long-lasting partnerships with each and every one of our clients.

We make websites easy to use, for individual brands and businesses of all shapes and sizes.



HAPPY CLIENTS

★ Nicole is amazing! She took my ideas to the next level and I love them. I get tons of compliments on my business cards and my website. And she was an absolute joy to work with.

Christina Ness — Thrive Acupuncture

★ Nicole has been a true pleasure to work with. In short time she fixed us up with a top notch layout, some great features, SEO management, and set it up in a way that allows us make changes easily. I look forward to the next time we need web services as I know it will be done quickly and correctly.
